

Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

New York City,

July 25th, 1887.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 24th inst, acknowledging the receipt of five-cent nickels forwarded from this Office on I.O. 14012, and requesting that in future transfers to the Mint the old and new issues be separated, I beg to say that there is but a small amount of the coin on hand at this office, and it is kept in lively circulation, being paid out as fast as received.

We have no occasion to separate the pieces for any purpose to be subnerved here, and our facilities for sorting them are limited.

Wm Dell Fox
Capt of the Mint U.S.
Phila Pa.

Very respectfully
C. J. Fox
Asst Treasurer

Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,
NEW YORK CITY,

January 25, 1887.

C. J. Condu.

Assistant Treasurer U. S.

In reply to Letter of 24th asking that the new & old 5¢ Pieces
may in future be separated, says, that there is but a small
amt of this coin in circulation & that they have no occasion to separate the pieces, & facilities for sorting them are limited.

REIVED

JAN 26 1887

No. of Enclosures,

PHILA.

[Abstract:] In reply to letter of 24" asking that the new and old 5 cent pieces...

C.N.W.

Office of Assistant Treasurer U.S.,
New York City,
January 25, 1887

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 24th inst. acknowledging the receipt of five cent nickels forwarded from this office on T.O. 14012, and requesting that in future transfer to the Mint the old and new issues be separated. I beg to say that there is but a small amount of this coin on hand at this office, and it is kept in lively circulation, being paid out as fast as received.

We have no occasion to separate the pieces for any purpose to be observed here, and our facilities for sorting them are limited.

Very respectfully,
C.J. Canda
Asst. Treasurer

Hon. D.M. Fox
Supt. of the Mint U.S.
Phila. Pa.